PCM Makes Headlines

Students and staff featured in national magazine

In the December issue of Presbyterians Today, the national magazine of the PC(USA), the cover story featured a picture of Campus Minister, Rev. Kathryn Campbell and PCM Resident Coordinator, Hannah Kirby along with young adults and graduate students at the “Monday Morning Buzz”, a weekly gathering a devotion for young adults in Greensboro that is organized by PCM. The article also featured an interview with PCM Executive Director, Rev. Peter Hazelrigg.

The board of PCM Greensboro has made the strategic decision to expand the mission of PCM to include young adult (post college) ministry in Greensboro, new small group opportunities are being developed with partner congregations in Greensboro to make this vision a reality. In the year to come, PCM will continue to partner with congregations to jointly sponsor worship, service, and study opportunities for young adults in the community.

In August, PCM and Starmount Presbyterian Church solidified its partnership with the addition of Rev. Kathryn Campbell, who serve as Associate Pastor at Starmount and as Campus Minister with PCM Greensboro. In 2012 PCM will be seeking to establishing similar partnerships with local

Grier Booker Richards to join the PCM staff in January 2012

Starting in January, Grier Booker Richards will join the staff as a Campus Minister part-time. Grier is a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, a Greensboro native, and a gifted pastor of youth and young adults. Most recently Grier has been working for the Institute for Youth Ministry in Princeton. She has also served as the Director of Middle School Ministry at First Presbyterian Church in Greensboro.

Pictured here with son, Olsen, Grier will be assisting in the programs of PCM and also developing connections with local congregations as our ministry seeks to assist congregations with the transition of youth from high school to college. ☐

HONOR ROLL OF DONORS

Presbyterian Campus Ministry of Greensboro is an independent 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization that relies on the support of Salem Presbytery, local partner congregations and individual donors to fund our ministry programs. We are grateful for the financial contributions that have enabled this ministry to grow and impact the lives of students, young adults, and congregations in Greensboro.

We would like to honor all of our annual campaign donors for 2011 (through November), and our supporting congregations. It takes all of these people to make this ministry a reality. Thank you all for your partnership and financial support.
